EFFICIENCY RATING — EVALUATION D'EFFICACITE

Passers are rated on the basis of six categories—number of completions, yards gained passing, percentage of completions, ratio of interceptions and touchdowns to number of passes thrown and average yardage gain per thrown pass. Following is the rating of passers in each category.

Les passeurs sont évalués d'après six catégories—le nombre de passes réussies, verges gagnées par la voie des airs, le pourcentage des passes qui sont réussies, la proportion d'interceptions et de touchés avec le nombre de passes effectuées et la moyenne de verges gagnées par passe. Voici l'évaluation des passeurs dans chaque catégorie.

SHORTEST FIELD GOAL

The shortest field goal on record in the Canadian Football League must be the 8-yarder kicked by Calgary Stampeders Cyril McFall against Edmonton on September 6, 1976 at McMahon Stadium. Calgary had a 3rd-down situation on Edmonton's 1-yard line, trailing the Eskimos 14-16 with about half a minute to play. Rather than risk failing a touchdown bid, the Stampeders opted for a field goal and McFall went back the routine 7 yards behind the line of scrimmage, which was the 8-yard line. His place kick put Calgary ahead 17-16. Ironically, with 31 seconds left Edmonton moved into position in two plays from the ensuing kickoff and Dave Cutler kicked a field goal on the last play of the game to give Edmonton a 19-17 win.

THE FAMED STUKII

The famed Stukus Family of Canadian Football will recall with fondness the game of Nov. 5, 1938 when Toronto Argonauts romped to a 58-13 victory over Montreal Cubs. The three brothers—Annis, Bill and Frank in order of seniority—all got into the touchdown act that day. Bill threw a pass to Annis for a touchdown and Annis threw a pass to Frank for a touchdown. Bill scored two touchdowns on his own. Three Forzani brothers—Joe, John and Tom—played for Calgary but were never able to put their touchdown act together in one game.

THE GREAT "HUCK" WELCH

Hawley "Huck" Welch, that great running and kicking star of past Montreal and Hamilton teams, put on a great closing rush in the 1935 season, scoring 51 points in his final three games with the Tigers. He scored two touchdowns in each of the three games, to go with two field goals, 13 singles and two converts. In the Eastern Final against Sarnia he scored two more TDs, giving him a record of two touchdowns in each of four consecutive games.

ALOUETTES HAD ALL-PASSING BACKFIELD

Montreal Alouettes must have set some sort of a passing record, Oct. 2, 1948, when six players took turns on the firing line while the Als dumped Argos 17-8. Bruce Coulter, Steve Nemeth, Billy Bass, Norm Cox, Bronco Reese and Virgil Wagner all took a turn at pitching. Among them, they completed 9 of 21 attempts.
